

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Centerville, South Dakota, came into existence when a German-born doctor, Doctor Frederick Smith, and his wife filed a claim to the southeast corner of section 20-96-52, which is now Centerville Township in Turner County, in what was then Dakota Territory; and,

Whereas, Centerville is a family-oriented town with agricultural roots and is known by its' Scandinavian heritage, where it offers plenty of recreation and entertainment such as fishing, boating, camping, golfing, biking, three city parks, and the Stan Schmeidt Athletic complex; and,

Whereas, A community on the move, with a vision of the future, Centerville has continued to prosper because of honest, hard-working, family-oriented people, who make it a tremendous place to live and grow; and,

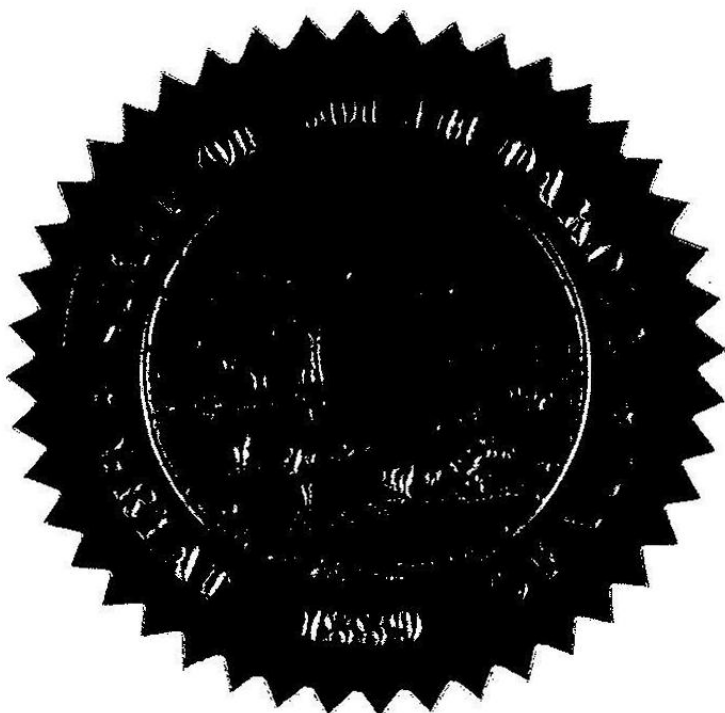

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Centerville in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns can occur among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public:

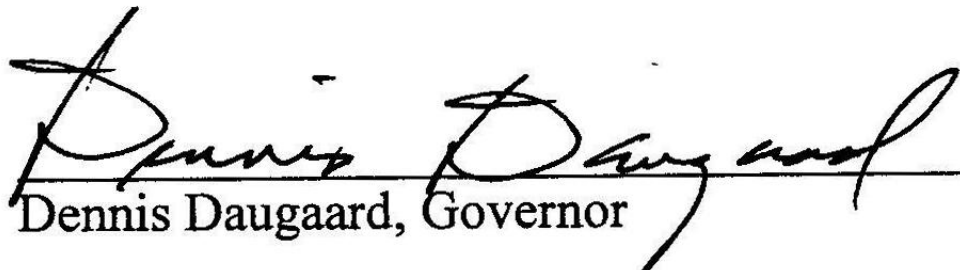

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 15, 2017, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State
